“A VERY, VERY SINCERE THANK YOU” for your continued financial support of the Church by means of Weekly /Monthly envelopes & Offertory Basket.
If you are one of those people who put loose money into the collection baskets/box, perhaps you might consider getting a box of Monthly/Weekly envelopes from the Parish Office.

YOUR CONTRIBUTIONS GO TOWARDS THE UPKEEP OF THE CHURCH TO MAINTAIN THE HIGH STANDARD WHICH WE HAVE.
Your support is greatly appreciated

VALUE OF HOLY MASS Holy Mass is the Holiest Act of Religion.

You cannot do anything to glorify God more, nor profit your soul more than devoutly attending Holy Mass. When we receive Jesus at Holy Mass we receive Santifying Grace – God's own Life. You are preserved from many dangers & misfortunes that would otherwise befall you. At the hour of our death all the Holy Masses we have heard devoutly will be our greatest consolation. Bear in mind Jesus is PRESENT at each Mass as in the last supper.

COPE Galway are recruiting volunteers to our Helping Hands at Home Service. Could you spare an hour or two each week to visit & assist an older person living alone in our community? Please contact Noelle on 085 8743803 if you are interested or would like to hear more about this role. Thank You.

Knocknacarra ICA are curenly on summer break but meet weekly for coffee at different venues. The ICA will resume meetings on 11th Sept. in the meeting room over Tesco's. A packed programme of activities is planned for the year ahead. New Members welcome.
